

Audition Information for Organ Lessons

All students wishing to receive applied organ instruction (private lessons) must audition prior to the beginning of the semester or no later than the first week of classes. Only students with a strong and proficient piano background will be considered for lessons.

Those with no prior experience playing the organ may audition on the piano. Suggested repertoire includes Bach Inventions, Clementi Sonatinas, Beethoven, Schumann, etc. Alternatively, an organ audition can be scheduled. Suggested organ repertoire includes, Bach, Buxtehude, Brahms, Vierne, Dupré, a hymn, etc. Auditionees should prepare two contrasting works to demonstrate musical and technical proficiency; memorization is optional.

Lesson fee per semester; $425 for 50-minute weekly lesson; $212 for 25-minute weekly lesson.
